Bret,

TODAY IS MY 5 YEAR ANNIVERSARY! lol.

I'm up early, working and I know it's one person up before everyone else... as usual… and that's you! I just wanted to thank you for the opportunity you gave me to come work with Money Morning 5 years ago. This has been an amazing journey and I appreciate everything that you've done for me. I've learned so much and been able to accomplish and have some great memories with you guys and I pray for many more years of continued partnership. You've been so instrumental in where I am today in my career and as a person and I just wanted to personally thank you for everything.

Salute

1. :))) SEO UPDATE: I'm 1 week away from Phase 2 of the link building being completed. You've just allowed to completely scale my linking strategies for our top pages and develop a step by step system to duplicate with upcoming targets. Just a few example screenshots show our Off Page scores. Facebook, silver and penny stock webpages have #1 off page SEO scores out of millions of competing sites, just to name a few. As we work alongside editorial to create the highest On-Page site scores we'll be sure to see the impact in the next few weeks on our 1st PAGE RANK TARGETS. On-page scores have improved and editorial is one week into their automated stock content launch, so a few more updates and we'll be on our way.

4. Brent Arrington and Morehead State finished with a 2nd place finish. The career is finally over but we had a great ride. THANK YOU so much for always allowing me to go follow his journey and see games when possible. Memoris I'll never forget!

5 You took a kid who grew up at [redacted] and showed him how to master a craft and find his place in the world. Thank you!

I COULD not find any cool khaki pants with animals or Disney characters on them so I found you a rare grown man gift instead. Hope you enjoy.

Much appreciation and respect,

Thank you!

Chad Arrington
