Presidential Debate: Trump vs. Clinton on the Refugee Crisis

By CAMERON SAUCIER, Associate Editor, Money Morning - September 23, 2016

The stage is set: The first presidential debate begins on Monday, Sept. 26.

One of the big issues discussed at the debate will likely be the Syrian refugee crisis.

Both Trump and Clinton have taken opposing positions on the contentious issue.

Here's how this will play out in the debate...

How Both Trump and Clinton Could Fail to Win the 2016 Presidential Election

By DAVID ZEILER, Associate Editor, Money Morning • @DavidGZeiler - July 8, 2016

Just because Republican Donald Trump and Democrat Hillary Clinton will be the two main presidential election 2016 nominees does not mean one of them has to win.

Quirks in U.S. election laws and a disgruntled electorate have opened the door for Libertarian presidential nominee Gary Johnson.

But Johnson doesn't have to win 270 electoral votes to land in the White House.

Here's what needs to happen...

How the Trump – Clinton Fundraising Gap Will Affect Trump's Campaign Efforts

By CAMERON SAUCIER, Associate Editor, Money Morning - June 29, 2016

The Trump - Clinton fundraising gap could end up hurting Trump in the long term.

Unless Trump seriously steps up his fundraising game, he won't have enough money to fund his general election campaign.

25 Questions Hillary Clinton Must Answer Before Election Day

By DAVID ZEILER, Associate Editor, Money Morning • @DavidGZeiler - September 9, 2016

For the most part, Hillary Clinton has managed to dodge questions about how and why she used a private email server while she served as secretary of state.

But now a federal judge says she has only until the end of September to answer 25 pointed questions under oath about her long-running email scandal. The questions stem from a lawsuit by conservative watchdog group Judicial Watch.

Here's the complete list of questions the group has posed to Hillary Clinton...

Deaths Associated with the Clintons Keep Stacking Up...

By CAMERON SAUCIER, Associate Editor, Money Morning - August 9, 2016

Deaths associated with the Clintons keep rising...

On Aug. 1, Victor Thorn, a prolific writer and Clinton researcher, died at his home from an apparent suicide.

Thorn's death is added to a list of over 40 other people who knew the Clintons intimately.

And this fact has conspiracy theorists up in arms...

If You Want Investing Advice, Don't Ask Chelsea Clinton's Husband

By MONEY MORNING STAFF REPORTS, Money Morning - August 8, 2016

If Hillary Clinton is elected, hopefully she won't hire Chelsea Clinton's husband to be on her economic team...

After working for Goldman Sachs, Marc Mezvinsky opened his own hedge fund in 2011 called Eaglevale Partners.

He decided it would be a good idea to invest in the Greek economy in 2014, reportedly raising $25 million to buy Greek bonds and debt. But by 2016, his division was forced to close down, and 90% of the money was lost...

Hillary Clinton Has a "University Problem" of Her Own That Nobody's Talking About

By DAVID ZEILER, Associate Editor, Money Morning • @DavidGZeiler - July 13, 2016

While Hillary Clinton has been quick to criticize Trump University, she has her own skeleton in the for-profit college closet.

You see, for five years Bill Clinton had a well-paying association with Laureate Education -the biggest for-profit college in the world.

Now Hillary Clinton is promising to "crack down" on for-profit colleges, but she had little to say while her husband raked in millions in payments from Laureate.

The deeper you dig into the this, the worse it looks...
