Set 1

- MOBE shut down by FTC for doing same exact sales practices as MM P agora.

- Arrington learned many of his SEO systems and skillsets from John Chow and Matt Lloyd from the MOBE company.

• It was a business marketing company that profited from memberships to its platform.

- PISSED CONSUMER proves MMP is a Ponzi scheme, scam company defrauding a lot of customers. (chad focus asked to suppress negative online press using his systems)

- People lose a lot of money to these sales practices.

- MMP used Arrington's SEO systems to make pissed consumer disappear from the search engine so they could continue to defraud customers and potential clients.

* Narrative - Arrington paid well and given unlimited A mex spend for his SEO systems and jerk out good graces with Bret when not wanting to utilize negative SEO and eliminate honest customer reviews.

Review #1507221 is a subjective opinion of poster.

 Report  Share

Money Map Press' sell job was so convincing that I was minutes away from ordering a subscription. Then my cell phone rang and my distraught neighbor let out several expletives mixed in with three words...Money Map Press. He asked me how could he be so gullible and desperate? However, all I could do is listen in my shocked state, as he is normally a quiet person. What are the regulators doing to stop these predatory practices? Better yet, what is government doing? This call saved me thousands of dollars and sleepless nights.

Money Map Press - No Refunds on this one . . . for 12 months

     2.3 Details

I wanted to try options and Tom "sold" me. What I didn't notice in the fine print is that if you aren't satisfied, you can't get a refund for 12 months. So if you are option ignorant, stay away from this one, because the training is minimal and without proper clearance from a brokerage firm, you will be unable to place the recommended trades.

back but only by being very firm with them. The $5000 to $150,000 or more is a joke. They were sending weekly performance scorecards when i first signed up. The numbers were shockingly negative. My $5000 turned into zero in less than a month. Despite this the customer service guy insisted that they made 3000%. He offered to go through the trades. When I asked to be emailed all the trades he claimed they couldn't for securities reasons. Convenient. The angle I used was I couldn't have made the 3000% because the $5000 turned into zero in the first month. He spoke to his manager and while still insisting that they made 3000% refunded my $2500. I bought because of the guarantee...don't get sucked in.
